

Preliminary Programme

Symposium on 50 Years of CERN: Past, Present and Future

Friday October 1st 2004

14:00

University of Bern

Exakte Wissenschaften, Sidlerstr. 5,
Hörsaal 099 (ground floor)

- 14:00 Introduction (Prof. A. Clark, Chairman of CHIPP)
- 14:05 Address by Dr. Ch. Kleiber, State Secretary, Swiss Science Agency
- 14:30 Switzerland and CERN: A History of 50 Years
(Prof. M. Bourquin, Geneva, former President of CERN Council)
- 15:00 LHC, Building the World's Largest Collider,
(Dr. R. Aymar, Director-General, CERN)
- 15:20 Coffee
Display of CERN's Past, Present and Future
- 15:50 CERN Physics at the LHC and Beyond
(Prof. J. Engelen, Research Director, CERN)
- 16:20 Fundamental Questions in Particle Physics and Next Experimental Steps
(Prof. A. Rubbia, ETHZ)
- 16:40 Impact of Particle Physics on Technology and Society
(Prof. R. Eichler, Director, Paul Scherrer Institute, Swiss Delegate in CERN Council)
- 17:10 Round Table Discussion with Questions from the Public.